Paul McKenzie Farm

Finzel

Private

This frame, four bay by one bay house on a stone foundation with a two story rear addition was probably constructed in the late nineteenth century. It has been so altered that it lacks architectural significance.

A frame bank barn with a glazed brick silo, a brick milkhouse, a frame chicken house, and frame shed are included in the site. The shed is thought to have been a schoolhouse that was originally located on the hill southeast of this site.
